Another year has flown by and if the Lunar Calendar legend is correct... it's my lucky year. I am the Year of the Monkey and this Chinese New Year, my zodiac sign celebrates the playful and busy monkey sign. With that said, we have a lot of monkey business going on at the Paper Garden! Julie Ebersole returns to the boutique in March with her famous make 10 single layer cards class. Yep, 10 wonderful cards in two hours. There are also a lot of fun "color themed" classes and come spring time, see all the wonderful trends in flower and flourish designs. We will also bring back Paris and European influenced card classes and our ever so popular Asian card classes. Join us this 2016 and make the Paper Garden a part of your New Year's resolution to get crafty! Also... this year is a Leap Year! Monday, February 29th, Disneyland here I come!
