Newsletter Volume 56 | April / May / June 2020

Spring time is here and I can't believe my one and only child Miles is already more than halfway through his freshman year. Time is flying by so fast. Time for SWIM! I'll keep you posted on his season! Stay tuned... This Spring we will have our ever so popular and creative guest designer Cindi Nelson return in May... sign-up soon for her classes, they will sell out! Cindi owns and operates Impress Rubber Stamps in Seattle and owns stamp companies Flora and Fauna and Savvy Stamps. So fun! We will also bring back our fun "monochromatic" card making classes... (using just "one" color). Springtime also means bringing back our bookmaking classes and waterfall card classes. Along with a fun folds class... and so much more! We hope you are inspired this Spring-Summer!

A little tid-bit about me... as I write this newsletter, the Chief's just won their first Super Bowl in 50 years... I started my reporting career at WDAF-TV (FOX) in Kansas City the year Joe Montana became the Chief's Quarterback! It was big big news! My first day on-air was in November, and a big parade on the Plaza was happening, my live shot was to get fan reaction, it was pandemonium in a good way. Chief's fans love their sports whether it's the KU Jayhawks or a professional team, they are true fans. What got me is how loyal these fans are, they have the midwest welcoming spirit about them and that's the way they treated me... a newbie journalist who reported the news in this all American city. Good times! So happy the Chief's won! I feel like some BBQ now.
