Newsletter Volume 61 | July / August / September 2021

A Tale of Two Lifestyles

In this newsletter, I would like to write about a very special man who will be leaving “me” and hundreds of families who love and adore him from Sacramento. Come July, he will start a new position as pastor in Portland, Oregon. My special friend, Fr. Mike Moynahan has been a wonderful part of my life since he baptized Miles at age 7, and from that Sunday before Easter 2012, we instantly became friends. I keep telling him... he’s my best friend (smiles). We are opposites attract... for example, I am not Catholic. Father is a Jesuit Priest. He took a vow for his Church, I took a vow to my husband. Father often defines life and inspires us thru bible verses and poems, I relate about life lessons listening to the lyrics of pop music. And because I’m not the typical “circle of friends” he would come in contact with, I love that our friendship defines us based on who we are as people and not what we do for a living. For the past 9 years, Fr. Mike has been to countless dinners, lunches, and celebrations with me by his side... and what I have learned is that he brings out the best version of Stephanie. I always feel good about myself and about life when I walk him to his car after our time together. I feel like he has touched my soul in more ways than one... maybe it is because he is a priest – but then... isn’t that what a faithful friend does to you? What’s more... he always stays positive, when the world is negative... I yearn to be more like Fr. Mike.

When I heard the news, he was leaving... I sobbed like a 3 year old... Fr. Mike, “I fear I’ll never see you again... I am sooooo sad you’re leaving... I want an in-person dinner date not a facetime!!!” – it was a very sad version of Stephanie. He told me in his calm poetic priest voice, “It’s not the end of the world... our friendship can be enjoyed whether we are in the presence of the friend or not... and best of all, it doesn’t take up too much room in a suitcase.” Well, until the DeLorean car from “Back to the Future” is delivered to my house or the “Beam Me Up Scotty” phrase comes to life, Fr Mike will have to unpack me like a flat Stanley from his luggage and know that I will always be there for him. Best wishes to you always Fr. Mike – My devoted and trusted friend indeed.

*a little tid bit about me, when I was a flight attendant, I always kept a wrist watch on... because of time zone changes, I was paranoid I would be late to my flight. The second job I had was a tv reporter... I actually wore two wrist watches! I carried one in my 5 pound make-up bag and the other always with a strong battery on my wrist... I could never miss a deadline or a live shot. Fast forward to 2006 when I opened up my boutique, I never put a watch on ever again... yes, time is of the essence and yes, I’m not one to miss a deadline on any order... but guess what... I can’t fire myself... I’m the boss! (smiles).
