A Mother Lode

My grandmother would often tell me she got the greatest gift of all for mother's day on May 11, 1941. It was the day my mom, Shirley was born. She is one of five children raised in a family of hard working farmers in Sacramento along Bradshaw Road. The eldest sibling is Naomi (who is to my right of this picture). I often say that I have two mother's... my mom Shirley and Auntie Naomi.

Before the days of COVID, they would work in my store and greet my customers with smiles and my mom who would cook us a homemade lunch on Mondays and Tuesdays would often ask my customers who have become great friends of mine, if they would like to break bread with us as well. She was always proud to dish out her perfectly prepared lunches to anyone and everyone... like a Paper

Garden stationery store turned mini café. Well, with the two mom's being in their 80's, and the virus still in full force... they must STAY home! If there is one question that I do get asked often.. it is, how are the mom's? As you can see in this picture, they are doing great and look great! I do let them out every now and then for some sunshine (smiles!).

With this Mother's day on Sunday, May 8th, it's only fitting that I pay tribute to the two most important females in my life who have guided me with wonderful family values, unconditional love and always there for me when it comes to needing some extra hands at the store when I need help. I once read a quote and it has stuck in my mind like a permanent tattoo... "God could not be everywhere, and therefore he made mothers." Couldn't be more true when it comes to my mom and auntie Naomi... I clearly remember holding my mom's hand until I was 10... but now, she has my heart... forever.

A little tid bit about me... when I worked as a TV reporter for the Fox station in Kansas City, I quickly became an expert on football. Why? The Kansas City Chiefs are always the top story. Win or Lose... They are breaking news... they are Hollywood stars... they are what makes the world go around in the Show Me state... so of course, I, too became a big fan. My first story was a "breaking news story" because in 1993 Joe Montana was traded to the Chiefs for his final two seasons. My news director said, Stephanie, you're a SF bay area native, you do the sideline story of Joe coming off the plane and the sports anchor will get him practicing at Arrowhead Stadium. I said ok... no problem. Here I am in high heels and dressed in the power red suit, and pandemonium comes rushing through gates with screaming fans and not only have I lost my microphone somewhere in the crowd... I think I lost my hearing! Those crazy screaming fans... I seriously learned to love each and everyone of them. Makes my heart sing to see loyal fans.. win or lose, it's the name of the game! Next season Chiefs!
