Volume 30 | October–December 2013

We are excited to call the Pavilions shopping center our home, but we are still waiting to see what our new welcome mats and signs will look like! As I'm typing this in the hot summer nights, my new location doesn't have pretty papers or new flooring in yet, so hopefully we will move in... soon!

On that note... please look through our newsletter! We have TWO exciting guest designers... and they are both new to the Paper Garden Boutique. First off, you know her as her brand name "Judikins"—well the owner herself will be here teaching classes in October!

Miles Yee
8 years old, Otters swim team.

Second, Peggy Jo Ackeley will be at our boutique in November. She's quite the artist, and definitely the one to learn watercolor techniques from. Peggy will make your designs come alive. She hails from Yolo County. We are so excited to have these two artists make an appearance in our newsletter... can't wait to see how your cards come alive too!

More Than Embossing

Embossing is an incredibly impressive style for rubber stamped cards. But once you master a clean impression with a perfect application of embossing powder, it's time to explore unique and creative ways to use rubber stamps and a variety of embossing powder colors. You can call these fun cards "mini masterpieces".
