Where creativity blossoms!

Winter Newsletter | Volume 75 | January / February / March 2025

Another year, another milestone... which means my son Miles will be 20 this June and will soon be entering his second semester as a sophomore in college. Time sure flies by fast. This year also will be the year of the snake. If that's your year, consider yourself successful in the arts... you are intelligent, witty and patient. You are smart with money and can succeed at most things... think about how you slither your way thru every finish line!

Look for more fun classes and fun must haves in the store. And as always, we thank you for patronizing our little boutique, if it's one thing that I love about owning a store... it's meeting new friends and reconnecting with old ones. Thank you and know you are always welcome at the Paper Garden!

A little tid bit about me....

I recently became "hooked" on the Hallmark TV Network and have been binge watching any and all Hallmark movies. When I worked in Kansas City at the FOX station... you quickly learn three things... the KC Chiefs football team, BBQ and Hallmark! This is where Hallmark all began. I mean, this is thee headquarters and I loved being a part of where it all started... and how the art of cute and elegant giftwrapping was invented, cards for every occasion were created... and those cool signature ornaments were made. As a reporter for the number 16 TV market, I was assigned to interviewing producers and actors for the set of a new Hallmark Christmas special... it would be aired and totally taken place in Kansas City at the Plaza shopping center. I was so excited that Hallmark branched out into tv movies... I thought.. why not... they invent everything! I didn't know any of the actors in the movie, but they were like the boy and girl next door. I think that's why these shows do so well, it's so Midwest, Americana, beautifully done with a sweet ending... and the stars of the show aren't ones that are headliners for Hollywood, that's why I also could relate to the shows. It's one of those cool memories I have of living in KCMO!
